- Secretary –
 - None.

- Membership –
 - The new directories were distributed to Block Reps. John used a new company, Access Printing, to print the directories, and they were half the price of what was spent in the past.
- Parks –
 - Christie has noticed more dog waste in the park. She will put a notice in the newsletter.
 - The dog bag receptacles have been filled. John/Nancy still have about 3 boxes in storage.
 - The trashcans, in the park, were overflowing. Christie contacted Parks and they were waiting on a part for the truck. The trash has been picked up now.
 - The Port-o-pottys were picked up.
 - There is some ice build-up in the park. Christie will reach out to Parks.
- Safety –
 - There was a larceny on Golden Ct.
 - Two people have expressed interest in Neighborhood Watch. Rob is working out the next steps with our CRO, Jeremy, in District 4.
 - The Commander's Advisory Board is meeting at 5:30 tomorrow on February 5th.
- Social – Position Open.
- Architectural – Not in Attendance.

OLD BUSINESS:

- There is a light in the park, on the east side of the park, which is burned out and has been burned out for quite a while. Roger has opened tickets previously and has re-opened another ticket with Excel. The park light has a label to identify the light post, but the Post may be mislabeled. The post has 3 different numbers on it.

NEW BUSINESS:

- National Night Out is August 5th. We were notified the Brass Band will not be coming this summer due to budget cuts.
- We will try to get one more year out of the Christmas bows at the entry way.
- There are a few ladies, Jana Bond, Allison Kiersgard, and Courtney Mann, who may be interested in putting together some social events for PVIA. Heather is in communication with them.

- We proposed April 12th for Easter Party. The back-up date, in case of snow, would be April 19th. We will announce a “Save the Date”.
- We agreed the garage sale date will be Friday, June 6th and Saturday, June 7th. This may be mentioned in the next newsletter so residents can begin finding things they would like to sell.
- We will take down the entry way Christmas decorations the 3rd weekend, after Stock Show, on January 25th at noon, like last year.
- The storage unit price continues to increase. We will be renewing as of July, so we are paid through June 30th. The cost is for a 5’ X 5’ storage unit costs about $90 a month. Nancy and John will look at this in June.
- John/Nancy will take over the bigger sized Christmas winner sign to Access Printing to see if they would be able to create a sign closer to the size of our other 2 signs.
- We may use a sign, at the entry way, to announce our PVIA board meetings. John and Nancy may ask Access Printing about other ideas for a sign. A metal frame around the sign would be more stable. Christie has the white board.
- Sent Heather an email to get the storage unit key back.
